

Dark Romantics Vocab

1. mere – lake
2. aught – anything
3. pervaded – spread throughout
4. equivocal – having more than one meaning
5. discernible – noticeable
6. specious – seemingly sound, but not really so
7. scrutinizing – carefully observant
8. phantasmagoric – images appearing to change rapidly, like the events in a dream
9. ennuye – Bored or jaded
10. tenuity – fineness, lack of substance
11. profuse – abundant
12. vivacious – cheerful, lively
13. pallid – pale
14. inordinate – excessive
15. anomalous – abnormal
16. supposititious – supposed, assumed, hypothetical
17. affection – ailment, disorder
18. insipid – bland, without flavor
19. palpable – obvious, perceivable
20. stupor – state of mental dullness, loss of the senses
21. impromptus – spontaneous performances
22. seraph – angel
23. morbid – diseased, unhealthy
24. sentience – consciousness
25. similitude – likeness
26. demeanor – behavior, conduct
27. prolixity – wordiness
28. obstinate – stubborn
29. prodigious – of great size and power
30. potency – strength, power
31. emaciated – unusually thin, wasted away
32. surcease – an end
33. semblance – outward appearance
34. iniquity – wickedness
35. ostentatious – conspicuous
36. sagacious – wise, keenly perceptive
37. portend – signify
38. obscurity – something hidden or concealed
39. pensively – thinking deeply or seriously
40. antipathy – strong dislike
41. plausibility – believability, likelihood that something could happen
42. resolute – determined
43. rejoinder – answer
44. lubber – big, slow, clumsy person
45. splice – to join
46. imprecations – curses
47. inscrutable – mysterious
48. tacit – implied but not expressed openly, silent
49. volition – will
50. malignity – intense ill will
51. ferocity – fierce cruelty
52. apparition – unexpected sight or ghostlike figure that appears suddenly
53. ubiquitous – everywhere at the same time
54. erudite – scholarly, well informed
55. unensanguined – un bloodied
56. incapacitated – disabled