Hartland High School Student/Parent Agreement for Blended Courses

English English 11 A & B English 12 A & B Blended Course Agreement I understand that a blended course means that a majority of the course will be taken online while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach of I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand that be student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instruct at least once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom. I understand that sudents will earn an academic mark that will be reported on their HHS transcript in the same manner as their other courses taken at HHS.	l,	, Class of, am
English 11 A & B English 12 A & B Blended Course Agreement I understand that a blended course means that a majority of the course will be taken onlin while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand the student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instruct at least once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom. I understand that students will earn an academic mark that will be reported on their HHS	requesting to take the following Ble	nded course(s) during the 2022-2023 school year:
English 12 A & B Blended Course Agreement I understand that a blended course means that a majority of the course will be taken online while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand the student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instruction at least once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom.	English	Social Studies
 I understand that a blended course means that a majority of the course will be taken onlin while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand the student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instruction at least once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom. I understand that students will earn an academic mark that will be reported on their HHS 	English 11 A & B	American Government
 I understand that a blended course means that a majority of the course will be taken onlin while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand the student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instructional teast once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom. I understand that students will earn an academic mark that will be reported on their HHS 	English 12 A & B
 while receiving face-to-face support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teach I understand that blended courses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and are open to students in 11th or 12th grade. I understand that in order to be successful in a blended course, the student must have computer and internet access, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student may take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with their other regularly scheduled classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule. I understand the student will be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instruction at least once per week, possibly more. I understand that I am required to follow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am subject to the school's attendance/make-up time policy. I understand that if the student begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course expectations, the student may be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until the instructor feels the student is capable of working independently again. I understand that all written summative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face format. I understand that students in a blended course will be held to the same academic standar and requirements as courses taught entirely in a classroom. I understand that students will earn an academic mark that will be reported on their HHS 	Blended Course Agreement
I have read and understand the above Blended Course Agreement.	 while receiving face-to-face I understand that blended coare open to students in 11th of a lunderstand that in order to computer and internet acceresponsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student responsible, and self-motivated. I understand that a student will at least once per week, possed. I understand that I am required subject to the school's attended expectations, the student matched that if the student matched instructor feels the student matched in the instructor feels the student format. I understand that all written students and requirements as courses and requirements as courses. I understand that students with the same manner. 	support and instruction from a Hartland High classroom teacher burses are offered at the beginning or the end of the day and or 12th grade. The successful in a blended course, the student must have ss, demonstrate the ability to learn and work independently, be ed. In any take up to 2 blended classes at HHS in combination with ed classes as long as they fit into the student's schedule, be required to attend a face-to-face meeting with the instructor ibly more. The dot of ollow the attendance policy of the instructor, and am dance/make-up time policy. In the begins to struggle in the course and fails to meet the course and be required to attend the physical classroom regularly until int is capable of working independently again. The unmative assessments will be conducted in a face-to-face a blended course will be held to the same academic standard taught entirely in a classroom. The course taken at HHS.
Student Signature Date

Date

Parent Signature